Avocational archaeologist and Coffinberry member, the late Buerl Guernsey writes field notes at the Middle Woodland site of Prison Farm

Jan Brashler will be presenting our last presentation of the spring on “75 Years (plus or minus) of archaeology on the Grand River.” Jan will be talking about the history of archaeology on the Grand including the formation of the Coffinberry Chapter, and highlights of important discoveries made by archaeologists over the last several decades.

A fun fact about the Coffinberry Chapter is that George Davis was the first new member after the Chapter was formed in 1951
